

LAWCARDS Ensure Compliance – Order Today & Post!

In order to meet the requirements of RCW 19.48.030, and thereby limit the liability of hotel for the loss of a guest’s property, the lodging operator must: provide safekeeping facilities and post proper notice in three or more public and conspicuous places within the hotel notifying the guest of those facilities. Posting WLA’s Law Cards allows you to meet the posting requirements of the statute.

If a theft occurs and the guest has been informed of the safekeeping facilities through the required posting of WLA’s Law Cards, and has chosen not to utilize those facilities, then the innkeeper is not liable for the loss of property.

WLA is pleased to make these Law Cards available. When WLA Law Cards are posted in your property in three or more public and conspicuous places, you will be in compliance with RCW 19.48.030. If a theft occurs and the guest has chosen not to comply with the deposit provisions of the statute, you will be relieved of all liability for the loss of that guest’s property.
